“ There are so many childhood memories to choose from. One that always makes me laugh- We would make up jingles and go door to door to see if people would give us money. We spent countless hours in the attic watching tv.
Kristen had a wonderful heart and was really funny. I remember laughing over the silliest stuff including my Mohawk (Kim knows).
Kristen you are so dearly missed my so many. I miss our fun childhood times. Sending prayers and love to all. Rest In Peace.
