

Kyle J. McCann

March 6, 2000 - February 20, 2019

Wantage - Kyle J. McCann, age 18, unexpectedly left us and went to heaven from injuries he sustained in an automobile accident on Wednesday, February 20, 2019 in Wantage Township. Born in Newton on March 6, Kyle lived in Wantage. He was a 2018 graduate of High Point Regional High School and was currently attending Lincoln Tech. While in school, Kyle worked at the Dairy Queen in Montague and also for TNT Fence in Wantage, both owned by friends whom he considered family. He was a member of and attended St. Jude The Apostle Church in Hamburg.

Kyle had many friends and lit up a room with his smile and outgoing personality. He always had a story to share or something to say to make you laugh. He was ready to help, and was relied upon by all who needed something. He was very social, enjoying strong relationships with family and friends and loved to be with others. He had set many goals to begin a career in HVAC, and received the Director's Award from Lincoln Tech. Kyle was very athletic and played soccer, basketball, football and was on the track and field team at HighPoint where he excelled in throwing events, receiving his four-year Varsity letter and winning numerous awards. Kyle made friends wherever he went, and made a lasting impression. He was honored and excited to be a sponsor for his cousin Billy's Confirmation. Kyle enjoyed his truck and Civic, country music, his Red Wings, concerts at Bethel Woods, and a good BBQ. Kyle was an incredible son, brother, and very genuine person who made an impact on so many in his short life. Our hearts are broken, and we ask for your prayers as we have a such an empty space in our lives. Knowing that he is with the Lord has brought us some peace, and we will carry Kyle in our hearts forever. Having him for almost 19 years was a blessing, and we will treasure every memory for the rest of our lives, and ask that others do as well. Writing this obituary has been difficult, as we never thought at this point in his young life it would be needed.

He is survived by his loving parents, Steven J. and Amy (Gould) McCann of Wantage; his brothers, Sean and Christopher McCann of Wantage; his grandmother, Phyllis McCann of Wantage; his great grandmother, Constance Laverty and her companion Irving Kohn of Rockaway; and his aunts and uncles, Carolyn and Mark Friss of Albany, New York, Bill and Jennifer Gould of Wantage, John McCann of Hadley, New York, Godfather Kevin and JoAnn Gould of Hackettstown, Kim and Jerry Newchok of Columbia, and Ellen Monaco of Bloomfield, and many wonderful cousins. He treasured friendships from Sussex Christian School, High Point High School and Lincoln Tech which included both students and teachers. These friends and their families became a huge part of his life. You all played a part in the wonderful man he was. He was predeceased by his grandfathers, John McCann and Myles Laverty.

A memorial mass will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, March 2, 2019 at St. Jude The Apostle Church in Hamburg, with fellowship following in the church hall. Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to the Pinkel Funeral Home, 31 Bank Street (Route 23), Sussex. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations may be made to gofundme.com/kyle-mccann-memorial. Online condolences may be offered to the family at www.pinkelfuneralhome.com.

“ Kyle, you made it easy bub. I honestly don't know what I am going to do without my 11pm Walmart runs, my serenades driving around with no destination, our "hot tub seshes", you ALWAYS spelling my name wrong because you knew how much it bothered me, and just you in general. You always knew how to make me feel better and make me smile. I have "our song" as you used to call it on repeat and I can't help but think about you every second of the day. I love you endlessly bub❤️ My condolences to the entire McCann family and everyone else who has suffered this great loss. Fly high Puffy, keep looking over all of us❤️

“ Kyle, I will never forget you singing lullaby's in class to my big pregnant belly, or the letter we sat down and wrote together for your graduation. I will always see your sparkly blue eyes and loving smile in my heart. Thank you for bringing so much joy to my classroom. The ceiling tile you painted your senior year will stay above my desk forever. Your family will be in my prayers. -Mrs. Shenise

“ Kyle is a shining light. He made everyday a little better and knowing him would make anyone a little happier. I'll cherish the time I knew him and hearing my name being chanted down the hall since the time he was a freshman up until the day he graduated. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers. Heaven has gained an angel.

I was blessed to have Kyle in my classroom his freshman year.. His infectious smile and such kind, easy going, funny mannerisms would brighten my everyday. Words can't express my sadness over his passing. My mom is a new Angel too.. Keep an eye on this one mom, he's special. God bless you Kyle, your family is in my thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time. God only takes the best. 🙏🙏
