“ Our sincere and deepest sympathy for the loss of your dearest Lauren. Not fair to be gone so young leaving many hearts saddened and broken. Although I did not know her personally, I want you to know that we are with you in prayer. We know Lauren's mom, Karen from ShopRite who is always a pleasure to talk to.

“ To the Gerhold/ Scarpaci families. My deepest sympathies in the loss of Lauren. I've known Lauren since kindergarten and as adults we've lost touch, but what I do remember is how much she loved life. I've enjoyed watching her grow up and become a wife and a mother. The Franchi/ Nance family are thinking of you during this tragic time and wishing strength, peace and comfort in the days to come.

“ We may have lost touch over the years, but we had such fun memories throughout high school together. The school dances, vacationing together and spending every summer on your Dad’s boat, just to name a few. Thank you for a friendship that was filled with laughter and kindness.

All you ever wanted was a family. I’m so happy you fulfilled that dream. Your memory will live on through your beautiful children.

Rest in peace, Lauren.

*Love,
Jackie*

“ ..and when God brought you back, He said ‘Hallelujah, you’re home’..” 🙏👍

Life is so short, and it's not fair. To think we were just talking about toddler life and what I should expect as an aunt. You were such a bright light in this world, with a kind soul & friendly...you made the best out of every situation and your friendly sarcasm was top notch. The class of 2008 feels the pain. Forever missing you.

Prayers to all of your loved ones during this super tough time 🙏🙏

Lauren, may you rest in sweetest peace. 🙏

“ Met her going over the Dingmans Bridge where I worked, she told me who her Mother was which I knew her from School. We would talk a lot over many crossings over the Bridge she was such a lovely and kind girl, she would also wait on me at Apple Bs where she worked, I was devastated when I heard the very bad news of what happened to her it's just not fair of how a sweet girl would be taken away My heart goes out to all the families . RIP Angel ❤️

“ My deepest sympathy and condolences to all of the family members and friends who are left with shattered hearts and no words to speak. I am devastated over the loss of this beautiful young woman. She was such a sweet little girl and though due to distance, I've not seen her in many years, I kept up with her on social media and know she was fiercely dedicated to family, an amazing daughter, wife, mother, aunt, sister, niece and friend.

I remember the photo on Christmas of a big ole kayak she had bought for her then boyfriend Casey and thought wow! That's a nice gift! She must like him! And then the progression of the beautiful moment of their engagement at the Christmas tree in NY with my brother Joe there to witness his beautiful daughter's proposal. I smile now thinking of that moment. It was so special getting to see that. I'm so glad they shared it.

Families, know you are not alone. We will pray for you and support you and do all that we can do to help get these beautiful boys raised and to ensure they have a happy life.

With my deepest sympathy, Chris Delaney (Sissy)

“ My Dearst Lauren, my Baby, my Angel. You and your Sister are my Word and always have been. I still can't wrap my head around what has happened. I am lost without you and life will never be the same. I'm not sure how I'm going to do this but I will be there for Casey, Carter and Landon to help them any way I can. Please always watch over them and all of us, I will make sure they will always know how much you loved them. You were my Best friend and I will always be your Anchor. My heart is beyond broken, until I see you again my Beautiful Angel, I love you MOST always my Precious Angel. Love , Mom

Karen, I am so deeply sorry for your tragic loss. Lauren was a beautiful young lady and obviously well loved. I remember her sweet spirit as a young girl hanging out at Sally's. I can't imagine what you're going through and I'm so sorry for you. I will be praying continuously for her beautiful babies and for you all as you help get them raised. May God surround you with peace, comfort and love.
Love,

Lauren every weekend waited on us. At first I said aren't you Joe's daughter. And the rest was history. Lauren was our personal waitress for two yrs. What a bubbly loving woman with a zest for life. I have no doubt that so many family was there to greet her to make sure her transition would be a smooth and easy one.

“ My baby, I'm so sorry I wasn't there to protect you. I love you more than life, I would do anything I can do to have you back with Casey and the boys. You and Kristen are my greatest treasure. Please keep a watchful eye every Casey and your beautiful babies. You will live in my heart for ever. Please keep Kristen safe by watching over her, you know she has a tough exterior but she's very fragile. Your last words to me were you love me more. Those words will be put on my body . I love you so much my sweet angel. I will see you again one day. Please tell grandma how much I love and miss her.

Joe - my heart pours out to you in this most difficult time. Lauren was a beautiful girl, a testament to you and how great a father you were to her.

God richly blessed you with the girls he chose for you and though we will never comprehend why he took her so young and at the prime of her life, we know his purposes are so much more than we can understand and one day we will all be reunited in a perfect place where there is no more pain, suffering or death and it will be known.

My very deepest condolences dear brother. I am so very, very sorry for you. I am here for you and always will be.

Love you so much. Sissy.
