“ We go back a long way, Mario. Working with you was fun...lots of laughs. Working for you was an education. You were a kind and generous "boss" and took a lot of kidding from us. No one cut hair, with flourish and precision like you - it was entertaining to watch. You were dedicated to your business, and your family. I regret that I didn't look you up when you moved to Montague, but I am glad that I got to see you at the Homestead. You have been through a long struggle.... I'm sure you are resting in the Lord's arms now. Rest in peace old friend.
