“ I had the pleasure of having Mrs Page as an art teacher in grammar school and then on to becoming her coworker/ friend as an adult. I've known her my whole life and she was truly an amazing person. Absolutely hilarious at end of the year teacher parties.

“ Marion and I often said we were sisters, not by birth, but because we picked each other. We first met in JCSC and then taught together in the North Bergen School System. Marion was a much loved art teacher. We had escapades and road trips and when we heard that a lamb that followed Marion around was doomed for the “truck”, we looked at each other and bought HRH, Prince William of the Lamb, on the spot. So many memories and laughs! You will be sorely missed my friend! Love, Buff
