“ I fondly remember Marge when we served as officers together on the West Milford Township First Aid Squad. As a first responder Marge continued to maintain her skills while agreeing that the more training would certainly enhance her philosophy that we were "volunteers who were professional". Marge had the knack of being caring and compassionate not only to her patients but also to the loved ones of that patient. Marge would show concern to the patients family which many of us would often overlook. As a squad officer she was firm, fair and respected by the 50+ members. Marges main concern was always her husband Jim and daughters followed closely by her church. A job well done. May Marge rest in peace.

“ I never met Marjorie Beach, but have known her daughter Jeanette for many years. However, I know she must have been a remarkable woman to have a daughter as compassionate and caring as Jeanette. All of the staff at Safehaven and Families have you in our hearts and prayers.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you at this loss. An angel has been lost here on earth and Heaven has gained another. Now she can keep an eye on all of us that were blessed to know her.

“ Marge was a very kind and loving person to her family, friends and all she met in her life. She has taught me to be strong in whatever I do. I will personally miss her stories and smiling face each Sunday @ SUMC. Marge always put a smile on your face and gave you a hug, when she knew you needed one. The Rummage sale will never be the same with her gone. Thank you Marge for everything.

“ I never met Mrs. Beach but feel I knew her because of her daughter Nancy. Mrs. Beach's influence and guidance is duly noted in this daughter whom I treasure. My heart and thoughts go out to this family at this time.

“ I light this virtual candle, as I did the real candle I lit last evening after Jeannette's call, in memory of a woman who knew no strangers and loved her family and life. I also light it for the living--those left behind with all the good memories of a life well-lived and -loved. I only met Marge on the few occasions she visited with her daughter and my dear friend, Jeannette, but she always greeted me like she knew me well and we'd only been apart for a few days instead of the years in between. For the family, I am so sorry for your loss--the Universe has gained a new and shining star.
