“ OUR SWEET AUNT MARY Was funny, kind, and a fantastic baker. she could crochet, and made beautiful things! Her loving heart was the greatest gift we could ever receive. We were blessed to have her for as long as we did. We love and miss her beautiful smile..❤️❤️❤️

I knew Mary since I was in Grammer school with her son David. I spent many great times at her house eating incredibly amazing meals and getting scolded at when Dave and I were not behaving. She was a remarkable woman and the magical glue that held that family together. She will be missed. Even though she use to call me a scoundrel. 🙌😂😭

A gift of love is what she and her loving Daughter Nancy gave our Family. Jennifer had RETT Syndrome and we did a Patterning Exercise in our home. We need volunteers and Granma Mary and Nancy became Jeni's special Angels. They became family to us and it is something we never forgot. Granma Mary and Jeni are now sharing some catch-up time together. We were blessed with her Love.
