“ I will miss you so much poppy you will always be in my heart. I love you so much and I know you always loved me. It's just so hard knowing you won't be here to see most of my milestones in my life or even see me graduate school this year but I know you will be watching from heaven. You cared so much about me and knowing I was your youngest grandchild and only granddaughter always put a special spot in your heart. Your in a better place now and you will always be watching over me to see my milestones. Just remember I will always love you and miss you.
