

Melissa Beth White

May 2, 1975 - December 18, 2025

Melissa Beth White, 50, of Wantage, New Jersey, passed away peacefully on Thursday, December 18, 2025, surrounded by love, following a short illness. Melissa was born on May 2, 1975, and was a devoted daughter to Richard and Charlanne Leavy; wife to Christopher White; mother to Kaitlyn and Lucas White; sister to Felicia and Joseph Milelli and Justin and Amy Leavy; her loving mother-in-law, Beverly White; her spouse's siblings, Wendy and Bill Gaechter and Dave and Lisa White; and aunt to Cameron and Calissa Gaechter, Jordyn and Connor White, Isabella, Joseph, Matteo, and Leondro Milelli, and James and Emily Leavy. She was known for her tenderness, kindness, compassion, patience, and deep unwavering love for her family. Melissa can be remembered by her mastery of child care and child development and was best represented by the daycare she owned, "Roots & Wings" and later as a loving care giver to families with young children. She lives on through the children she cared for, who are who they are because of her, and had the honor of receiving their roots and wings from her directly. Everything Melissa did was to bring joy to the hearts of others, including her love of cooking, baking, and crafting gifts. She also had a profound love of music and would regularly enjoy songs surrounded by her loved ones. She was also a very active part of her community, largely through her strong Christian beliefs and was a faithful member of the Christian Faith Fellowship Church.

“ I am so saddened to hear of Melissa's passing. Kaitlyn, Luke, my heart breaks for you and your family. May God comfort your hearts and allow you to find peace in the weeks ahead. While the Christmas lights will feel too bright and the Carols too merry, please know that Mom is in glory with the angels, singing over the celebration of that first Christmas.

“ Felicia posted such an eloquent statement about her sister, Melissa, on Facebook, that pretty much sums up the person that she was. For once in my life I am without words to add because I am stunned by the events that took Melissa’s life so quickly and unjustly. Perhaps that is why I am at a loss for words. Rest in peace you beautiful girl and know that the world will miss you. Aunt Judy DePalma

“ Melissa was truly the best nanny I could have ever wished for—an earth angel in every sense of the word. My boys quickly became her world, and the bond they shared was something so rare and so beautiful. From trips to Space Farms, library adventures, baking at her house, to music and laughter, she always nurtured what they loved and who they were becoming. She was their favorite pal but also she was my right hand, my constant, and someone our family trusted completely. We are forever changed by her love, and I will be forever thankful for the gift of knowing her.

Melissa was a very thoughtful, caring and loving person. She always liked to make people happy with her thoughtfulness. She will be truly missed. Though words can not explain the pain and devastation her family is going through, I pray that the Good Lord will give them strength to endure their sorrow, the Lord's presence to give them peace in their hearts and loving memories to sustain them during this most difficult time in their lives.

But the souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was judged an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace. For if before men, indeed, they be punished, yet is their hope full of immortality; chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of himself. As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself. In the time of their visitation they shall shine and shall dart about as sparks through stubble; they shall judge nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord shall be their King forever. Those who trust in him shall understand truth, and the faithful shall abide with him in love: because grace and mercy are with his chosen ones. Wisdom 3:1-9
