“ We have wonderful and beautiful memories of my beloved Son-in-Law- Mike. Will surely miss him very much! He is a great person who not only shows great concern for family but also for others who need assistance. Mike has a strong faith in Our Lord and like myself, we believe in God's plan of our life, after all He is our Creator. I remembered when we were vacationing in Ocean City, even if he was struggling with pain just so we could all be together managed to be with us. While strolling on the boardwalk, he told Armina, my daughter, that he wanted to get me the Johnson caramel popcorn which he knows I like very much that it would be hard for me to get, due to my physical condition, even he himself is not capable due to his ailment. It touched my heart what he did to make me happy going out of his way. That shows you the kind of person with a big heart. Who would not like him? A devoted husband and a very loving father to Regina and Danton. Dan, myself and our family will miss him very much! I know Mike is prepared to meet Our Lord! Mike, you will always be in our minds and hearts.
