“Mike, you were an immensely intelligent, talented, hard working, funny, and thoughtful person. You consistently expressed gratitude toward others and were a humble, kind man.

From the moment you turned the first screw for Hudson Trailer Company, you treated every project with dedication. You came to work with a good attitude, laughing loudly, and facing challenges with enthusiasm. We heard many a curse word from you in the shop over the years, but that only made us smile as we knew you would rise to the occasion and successfully engineer the one of a kind project you were creating. From the plumbing wild goose chases you sent us on to your meticulous electrical designs and solar configurations, it was always a pleasure to see you take pride in your work.

You moved this company to Jacksonville without hesitation and were a leader in the shop that others looked up to. In the last year and a half, you helped transform the mobile business industry, cementing your work, and our company, as the leader in the industry. We are successful today because of your hard work, dedication, bravery and selflessness.

You have left a stunning legacy of work, too much to display here. You were an amazing craftsman, teacher, employee, confidant, and co-worker. You honored us by being a part of our Hudson Trailer family.

May God rest your soul. You will be remembered always; A life that touches others lives on forever.

“ Mike was a force in our lives that will be missed. He was one of the most gifted and talented individuals that I've ever had the pleasure of knowing. His laugh made me laugh and his smile made me smile. Fly high brother, you will forever remain the piece of my heart that helps me get through the toughest times. It's been an honor.

Dave, I just heard the tragic news about Mike and found this tribute wall when I looked him up. Words can not adequately express how sorry I am to know that he is no longer with us. My most heartfelt sympathy and prayers go out to you, your family, and his daughter. He was a one of a kind soul and he will never be forgotten.
