“ When Michael was a young boy living in Jefferson, he was a playmate and neighbor to my daughter and son. That young boy with a bright smile is the way Michael is frozen in my heart and mind. I am saddened to learn of his passing.

“ I only remember you as a young boy, but you were very special even then. I would tell your grandmother Doris what I thought of you. Loving, kind and so helpful to your mother. From posts by your friends Michael, you remained and always will be just as special!
