

Milo E. Walsh

July 2, 2010

Wilkes-Barre, PA-Milo "Mike" Walsh, age 84, passed away on Friday, July 2, 2010 at the Wilkes-Barre Veteran's Medical Center. Born on March 6, 1926 in Franklin, New Jersey to the late Frank and Ella Walsh , he lived in Glenwood, New Jersey before moving to Milford, PA. He had served in the United States Navy during World War II and was a member of the American Legion Post #213 in Wantage, New Jersey. Mr. Walsh had been a self-employed auto mechanic and truck driver all of his life. He was predeceased by his first wife, Dolores Drake Walsh in 1966; his second wife, Lucretia "Pat" Williams Walsh in 2004; and his two brothers, Frank Walsh and Carl Walsh. Mr. Walsh is survived by his four sons, Carl Walsh and his wife Barbara of Unionville, NY, Thomas Walsh and his wife Debbie of Virginia Beach, VA, John Walsh and his wife Sandy of Milford, PA, and Robert Walsh and Anna May of Milford, PA; his two daughters, Bonnie Brean and her husband Tom of Unionville, NY and Dee Marie Day and her husband Steve of Liberal, KS; and his 12 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren. Milo was known for his sense of humor, charm, and sharp wit. He was always ready with a story to tell or a joke to share with all. He enjoyed playing practical jokes and getting people to laugh. He loved searching for antiques; especially haggling and finding the best deal. The family would like to express their sincere thanks to the medical staff at Wilkes-Barre Veteran's Hospital; especially, Dr. Joyce Morano and Lynn Acri, PA. Funeral services will be offered at the Pinkel Funeral Home, 31 Bank Street (Route 23), Sussex at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, July 7, 2010. Interment will follow at Fairview Cemetery, Route 284, Wantage. Friends may pay their respects to the family on Tuesday from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m.. Online condolences may be offered to the family at www.PinkelFuneralHome.net
