

Nancy A. Parry

October 18, 1956 - May 28, 2024

Catonsville, MD - Nancy A. Parry, age 67, passed away on Tuesday, May 28, 2024 at St. Agnes Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Born in Queens to the late Anthony and Marylou (Richards) Luca, Nancy grew up in the Flushing section of Queens and lived in Pike County, Pennsylvania during her teenage years before moving to Wantage. Nancy met the love of her life, Stephen, at the young age of 14. They were engaged 2 years later and ultimately married in 1976.

Nancy was an avid reader. She also loved animals, especially her many dogs and feeding the deer that visited her daily. Nancy adored her children and grandchildren. Nancy was especially known for her sense of humor.

Nancy was predeceased by her brother, Richard Luca in 2016. She is survived by her loving husband of 47 years, Stephen Parry; her son, Stephen A. Parry of Syracuse, NY; her daughters, Jeanette Swank and her husband Ed Jakubowski of Catonsville, MD, and Lisa Haskins and her husband Jim of Hampton; her sister, Vivian "Lynn" Fleming and her husband Warren of Damascus, MD; and her grandchildren, Addison, Ella and Emilia.

“Nan was the sister of my best friend Lynn. I have fond memories of catching up on the reality shows with her. It was fun talking about those people as if we knew them personally and of course we were always right!! I remember being at her wedding to Steve and how happy she was. She will be missed, but will live on through her daughters and granddaughters. Rest now Nan. Melanie Punter
