My deepest sympathies to the family of my friend and brother Noel.
I am so sorry we didn't get a chance to meet in person again. I had all plans to give you your arm massage which you loved so much. I still call you Mr President when you called me prime minister 😭. I will certainly miss you my friend. Rest in peace and we look forward to seeing you in the first resurrection 🙏

“ I want to express my heartfelt condolences to my dear Aunty Mavis and cousin Randy. I love you both so much during this difficult time. I have so many cherished memories to hold onto, especially the times when he would take us out for ice cream when I was a little girl. His absence will be deeply felt, and he will always remain in my thoughts and dreams.
