“ Dear Jason,

I terribly sorry to hear of your mother's passing. It is never easy to say goodbye, but you can find relief in knowing that she is now at peace. You were a great son to her, and you made her proud.

Thankfully, you were at your Mom's side with Jessica and Abby, and you were here in NJ to support one another. I am thinking of you, your sisters, your families, and all the kids during this time.

May your fond memories bolster your comfort and strength. My deepest condolences.

Sincerely,

Seth Harrington

Jim, Jason, Jessica, and Rebecca,

Please accept my sincere condolences for you loss. Pat was always a warm and welcoming "mother to another brother" for all of us. The grief you feel is the love you still had to give.

I'll blink my porch light in her memory.

Dear Pat.

sitting at my desk tears rolling down my cheeks, the pain of knowing that i will not see you again on this earth.

working with you at Bristol Glen was an unforgettable experience. we became good friends in a very short time. I trusted you like no other. You were kind, impartial, a no nonsense lady. I shared many of my secrets with you, knowing your lips were sealed. I called you my American sister.

I recall lunch breaks at Bristol, where we shared our lunches. Setting the table with real china " it felt like we were not at work, i love it" you used to say.

You truly made me feel like the best cook (and i know am not), for every bite you took you hummed hmm, hmm ,hmm. made me lough each and every time.

you invited me into your home. Our precious Tea Time and cake still etched in my mind.

despite not seeing you regularly, at times for 6 months passed by, when we saw each other, it was like we met every week. That's your specialty, your huge warm kind hugging heart.

I will never forget you pat.

love you forever.

Dear Jason and family,

So sorry for the loss of your loving and kind mother. May she always be with you in your heart, call on her and she will listen, never will she leave your side. Have peace knowing she is in her final resting place, her everlasting heaven.

Sincerely and with love,

Jane Richardson

Jason and family,

Michele and I are sorry for your loss. Though I didn't know your mother very well, she made a lasting impression on us when you both last stopped by. Such a strong and caring person, whose personal calamities did not get in the way of her humanity. If we could all be so courageous....

*With love,
Jonathan and Michele*
