“ It was always nice to see Patty because she was so pleasant to be around. When AJ and I would be joking with each other she would just shake her head and give these beautiful smiles. I never heard her have a bad word for anyone, she will be greatly missed!

“ When her first great grandchild was born, the three of us would go for long walks around my block. It was cold, but Patti didn't care. We would talk about family, life and motherhood. She was there for us when we needed her the most. She always helped others and was a wonderful person. Miss her already.

“ One of my most vivid childhood memories of my Grandma Patti is playing with sparklers on her back porch on the 4th of July, which was coincidentally her birthday. My sister and I spent a lot of time with my grandparents in the summer as kids and we always found a way to have fun.
