“ Five years ago today Heaven gained a beautiful Angel...it's surreal how quickly time passes...these past two weeks have been the toughest for me in almost every aspect of my life...from settling a case...renewing my HMO...learning the truth about someone I trusted...& dealing with the Abuser sperm donor that helped create me...thinking he was dying I moved him up by me to make it easier on me when he passes & give him one last fair chance of having family in his life...he's working on changing but reverts back to his drunken asshole selfish self...we had a fight last month & suddenly he doesn't want to “help” anymore...financially of course cause he's useless for anything else...he's taking advantage of Jimbo far too much not to help...yesterday Jimbo was his tire guy...swapping out his snow tires on his truck...his tractor guy...swapping out the snowblower attachment with the front loader bucket...his chimney guy...cleaning the chimney & cap...his plumber...fixing the outdoor spicket from running...Jimbo also gave his an electric chainsaw Jimbo inherited from his Dad when he passed...

Then when Jimbo got home he struck out changing out the tires on my truck & my car as the rims on both didn't fit...explaining this to the Asshole & letting him know Jimbo uses that truck & I have no $ for tires...the Asshole says you can't cash advance $ instead of offering to help...after all Jimbo has done for him...Anyway you told me to stay away from him...& even from the other side I should've known better & listened to you...I love you so very much Mom...I miss your voice (although I listen to recordings I've saved of you wishing me a happy birthday on voicemail in 2012 & the picture recording frame you sent me for Christmas wishing me a merry Christmas with Patty & her chiming in & Arianna when she was first born...) feel your love & guidance around me all the time...I'm so sorry I let you down...I love you so very much Mom...continue to watch over me & everyone...

“ Happy Third Birthday to Heaven Mom...the last two weeks you suffered three years ago haunt me every year...for some reason the two weeks between your Earthly Birthday & your Heavenly Birthday feel empty...maybe you have work you're doin' & are not able to be here in spirit...I feel so comforted by your lovin' presence when this time passes...I miss you so very much...I'm so grateful & blessed to call you Mom...some of the most valuable lessons you taught me about the good & bad about family...friends...& faith stand out on yet another anniversary since you left our lives...You have been remembered everyday & missed beyond measure...I love you Mom...say hello to all that have joined you as we think of them fondly with love...
