“ I remember growing up and spending nights at Chrissy's house and Philip was right there with us laughing and joking with us. He was a very nice guy and will be truly missed. I would always smile when I saw him because his smile was contagious. RIP Uncle Philip. And to Chrissy, her father, and the rest of the family I am so truly sorry for your loss.

“ I had the privilege of living in a 2 Family house as a child in Garfield, NJ where Uncle Philip lived downstairs from us. He was the kind of uncle that was a friend to all his nieces and nephews, he didn't have any children of his own so we all were his kids. I remember him always taking us to get Italian ice and buying us all the candy and gum our parents wouldn't let us have. As an Adult he always kept us laughing, his stories will live in our hearts forever. He always kept up with the latest gossip in Hollywood, (his love for The Kardashians still makes me laugh) and always knew any sport statistics you would need to know. Uncle Philip you will be missed but forever in our hearts. Rest In Peace
