

Philip W. Wesighan Sr.

January 31, 1959 - October 31, 2017

Wantage - Philip W. Wesighan, Sr. age 58, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, October 31, 2017 at his residence after a lengthy illness. Born in Newton, Phil was raised in Franklin and Vernon and made his way across America before moving back to Sussex County. He was a self-employed Master Mechanic and was known to everyone as Phil's Mechanic. He lived life his way, giving of his heart to his friends and family. Phil was predeceased by his father, Lester William Wesighan. He is survived by his mother, Nancy Littell Wesighan of Franklin; his son, Philip W. Wesighan, Jr. of Wantage; his daughter, Melanie Sattaur and her husband Steffan of San Diego, CA; his brothers, Robert Wesighan and his wife Robin of Cottonwood, Arizona and Alfred Wesighan and his wife Wendy of Sandyston; his sister, Wendy Giacobbe and her husband Richard of Point Pleasant; and many beloved grandchildren, nieces and nephews and cousins. Private cremation services have been entrusted to the Pinkel Funeral Home, 31 Bank Street (Route 23), Sussex. Online condolences may be offered to the family at www.pinkelfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

JK

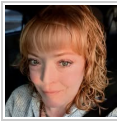

“ Philip was also father to Susan Week than and Bonnie Week than. He was a good friend, and I am relieved he is at peace finally! He fought a good fight against his illness and had a lobe of life many of us do not. I hope your having a beer somewhere out there in the universe free of pain finally! Your friend always Janet, Bonnies mom! RIP see you on the flip side...

Janet kumpf - November 09, 2017 at 04:16 PM

JK

Their last names are also wesigha n typos from heaven!

Janet kumpf - November 09, 2017 at 04:17 PM

By dad from Andrea Marie Wesighan

Andrea Putter - November 25, 2017 at 03:18 AM