“ My beautiful nephew, my friend, Randy was never judgmental, he was soft spoken with a heart of gold. He was unique, not typical, and I loved that about him. I will miss laughing with him as he was hilariously funny. I would not have wanted him to be any other way but they way he was. He is irreplaceable to me and I will adore him until the end of time. All my love, Aunt Donna (Boesz)

“ I was thinking about words to remember Randy by when I came across this poem written by Robert Service:

*There's a race of man that don't fit in,
A race that can't sit still;
So they break the hearts of kith and kin,
And they roam the world at will.
They range the field and they rove the flood,
And they climb the mountains crest;
Theirs is the curse of the Gypsy blood,
And they don't know how to rest.*

“ Randy,
We shared our growing years and childhoods together. Such great memories of the fun we had in so many places ( Our homes, Mama's (in the dog house), Disney World, Lake George).

Your adventurous ways will continue in your new world. But you will be missed here.

Eternal peace and happiness "Cuz".
With love, hugs and kisses,
Missy

“ I consider it a privilege and a blessing that my buddy Randy stopped by and played the drums with me last week. I never heard him play with such energy, so you could imagine how shocked I was to hear of his sudden passing. All I can say about Randy is he was definitely the definition of the words "free spirit". Now he's drumming with the best, Jimi Hendrix, David Bowie, Lemmy, and all his favorites. You will be greatly missed. A true friend, never a bad word to say about anyone. Keep jamming Randy and rest in peace my friend. Joseph.delmonico.jdm@gmail.com
