“ I have wonderful memories of Rebecca and her sisters when I was the youth director at LFC in Lafayette, NJ. I think of Rebecca as a kind, thoughtful, and caring young woman who I will miss very much. Even after leaving NJ and coming to PA in 2000, and then reconnecting with Rebecca via Facebook in recent years, I felt Rebecca's support and kindness. You will live on in my heart, Rebecca.

Love,

David Bosis

Thank you for posting, Norhan, this photo. These days with you and Amar and your family, I dare say were the happiest days of her life. Thank you for giving that to Rebecca. She deeply loved Amar and most certainly his family. Back here in the states she could not say enough good about you all. Much love from us to you. Steve and Jose

“ When Rebecca reconnected with her dad, she gained another Dad-me. She gave me so much love and regard. She even called both of us her Dads. I am heartbroken to lose my step-daughter so suddenly. I am grateful for the times we said "I love you" to each other. Love is all that endures. Nothing else matters. She knew how to love. She loved liberally, gladly, gratefully and without exception. I saw so much of her father, whom I have loved for over 18 years, in her. I will miss her voice, her smile, and her laughter. I treasure and honor her in my heart. She gave me the privilege of making a sweet daughter happy. Making her smile and sharing joyful moments with her meant the world to me. Becca will live forever in my heart and mind.

Dearest Jose. ... You and Rebecca together always doubled my joy in each of you. You two together were magic. I always saw myself blessed doubly when you two laughed and conjolled together; and oh, how you could both gang up on me, and it was then that I knew you each cherished me the most. I was first in your heart. I was first in her heart ... as you two walked away from me together onto the beaches of the Jersey shore, into the unforgiving sun. I watched you both. I loved you both. It was pure joy. And it was Rebecca who gave this ecstatic gift of joy. She alone deserved all the happiness in the world, for she brought so much happiness to us... her phone calls, her many written notes in the mail, and our visits together. We look at each other, Jose, and we see Rebecca in our shared memories with her. I love Rebecca.

Amar and Rebecca were lovers whose hearts were bound as one across oceans, faiths (Islam-Christian) and ethnicity (Egyptian-American) all because of Skype -- a new world in which two people can date for endless hours, sharing as if sitting simultaneously in each other's living room, the one with the other, the other with the one. They married in Egypt in the autumn of 2014. She was soon to return to Egypt in a couple months. They never were together again. She deserved more; but we who knew her and her love for us received from her fullness so much so, that in a sense, there is no more for us to receive.

Amar --- Jose and I love you and thank you for the happiness you gave Rebecca! You are our son, always; just as Rebecca would want it. Love and hugs, Steve and Jose
