“ Our deepest sympathies to the Marks family. Richard was a good man: a most decent and honest person. We met him when we bought our home at Sterling Mist in Parsippany and could not have found a better project manager. We appreciated his kindness and willingness to please. We will miss his visits and our chats while having expresso together. We will pray for his soul and also for his family in this moment of sorrow!

“ Myrna and you Beautiful Boys,
My heart is with you in the loss of the Gentlest Soul of all, our dearest Cart. I will forever remember his Kindness, his tender ways and beautiful face and smile. Myrna, I'm Teddy Goodwin's cousin who spent time with you & Ricky at Kenny's party on the steps in the backyard some years back. Bright Blessings for your most beautiful, beloved sweetheart & dad. Bless you all for the lifetime of Love & Joy you brought him. He was so proud of you boys. It was a joy to know him as a young man...ever kindly, ever fun, ever gentle. Most sincerely, an old caring friend--knew your dad since I was 11...that was my privilege, as everyone who knew him felt the same way all his days,

With love,
Ellen
