

Robert Victor Canonica

June 9, 2014

Wantage - Robert V. Canonica, age 68, passed away on Monday, June 9, 2014 at his residence after a long illness. Born in Jersey City to the late Victor and Frances (Hess) Canonica, he had lived in West Milford before moving to the Colesville section of Wantage in 1977. He was a self-employed truck driver and had retired in 2005. Mr. Canonica had been a member of the American Legion Post 213 in Wantage and had participated in horse show events that were held at the Sussex County Farm and Horse Show. He enjoyed trail riding. Mr. Canonica is survived by his wife of 48 years, Claire (Szuros); his son, Ken R. Canonica of the Township of Washington; his sister, Marie Pellino and her husband Frank of Dover, Tennessee; and his grandson, Karl Robert Canonica. Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Friday, June 13, 2014 at Pinkel Funeral Home, 31 Bank Street (Route 23), Sussex. Interment to follow at Mount Salem Cemetery in Wantage. Friends may pay their respects to the family on Thursday from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations may be made to the Wantage Township First Aid Squad, P.O. Box 721, Wantage, NJ 07461 or to Karen Ann Quinlan Center of Hope Hospice, 99 Sparta Avenue, Newton, NJ 07860. Online condolences may be offered to the family on www.pinkelfuneralhome.com.

“ Claire and Ken,

You and your family are in our thoughts during this difficult time. Bob was a good man and a great friend. He had a positive impact on my young adult life and the time I spent with him and your family will forever remain in my memory.

Thank you for always making me and my family feel like part of yours.

“ Dear Claire and Family,

Bob was a wonderful man. Smile on his face and song in his heart. He always had time to chat. He will be missed by all who knew his quiet, kind manner.

You are all in my prayers and I know Bob is at peace.
