“ My Uncle Bob was one of the best cooks and I was always thrilled when we arrived for family dinners and knew that one of the dishes was prepared by him. I think my most memorable time was at one of our holiday dinners. Uncle Bob felt the kids needed company for dinner and didn't want to leave anyone out in the cold at this festive time so he brought Tommy into the house for a visit. Well, Tommy was a pony and we kids thought it was amazing that this little guy came in the front door and was standing in front of us in the middle of the living room. Needless to say Aunt Pat didn't feel the same as we did. It was awesome! I looked up to him, as my dad passed away when I was only 9. Although I didn't see him on a regular basis when I did I thought he was amazing. He was a very talented woodworker, builder and cook. God Bless all who had the pleasure of knowing him.
