

Robert Edward McCormack Jr.

July 26, 1949 - June 28, 2025

Glenwood - Robert E. McCormack, Jr., age 75, passed away Saturday, June 28, 2025. Born in the Bronx, NY, to the late Robert E. McCormack, Sr. and Lillian (Zamparelli) McCormack, Bob grew up in Edgewater, NJ and attended Leonia High School with many friends with whom he was still close with to this day. Bob then graduated from Rutgers University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history. He later moved to Wallington, NJ with his wife Mary where they owned and operated Castagnola's Ale House. In 1987, they later settled in the Glenwood section of Vernon, NJ where he happily spent the rest of his life. Upon moving to Sussex County, Bob opened an embroidery business in Vernon named KM Specialties which he had for many years. He had a passion for music and enjoyed writing personal songs and playing keyboard/singing with different artists and bands throughout the years. Above all, his family was the most important part of his life. Bob was a loving husband and devoted father. He was a wonderful friend to many people and cherished all of his friends. He especially enjoyed having them over for his backyard parties where he created and served homemade pizza from his brick pizza oven.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 40 years, Mary (Makowski) McCormack; his daughter, Kristen Marie McCormack and her husband John Scully; and his sister, Linda Shuff and her husband William of New Milford.

“ I just read in The Advertiser about Bob's death. I used to deal with him for embroidery for Vernon Youth Soccer. This could have been 25 years ago, not sure. Plus I did some work in his basement shop. I am also fuzzy on this. I may have built some walls and/or ceilings. I think I helped him move some of his big machines. That's all not that important. What brought me to post here is I remember his big happy personality. It was a pleasure always seeing him. He was excited about his business and showed it. I enjoyed the brief period our lives crossed. My sympathy to you Mary and the rest of the family. May he rest in peace.
