“ Bobby was not only a cousin but a big brother we never had. Thank you for always being the first to help out, the first to crack a joke and ALWAYS put a smile on our faces. Much like our dear Uncle Bob who is right by your side in heaven, including Uncle Sonny and Aunt Joannie. We know you are in a better place right now, where there is no suffering, just peace with God and we will all be together again one day.

Much Love, Sympathy and Condolences to Vickie, Michael, Scottie, Glen, Joey and our dear Aunt Betty. OXOX Tammy & Terry OXOX

“ My deepest sympathy to the Stanaback family. I will always remember Bob during the times our sons played High School Football together and happy times on the Football Club making breakfast and dinners for the players. You will be truly missed. With deepest sympathy, Phyllis and Richie Krok.
