“ Wendy, came across this sad news by accident. I am so very, very sorry for your loss. Hopefully you can focus on the joy in your life, your son and daughter and 2 grandchildren. You will all be in my prayers.

“ Dad2 - So many memories of you and Mom2 have popped into my head. The time you took Wendy and me fishing. All the times I'd come to visit and you ask me to make room in my suitcase so I could bring you home with me. All the love and heartfelt hugs that were given and received. All the fun, happy times we had when Wendy and I were growing up and after we became adults. I know you're not in any pain any longer and that you're with Mom. Please watch over all of us. One last time for old times sake, "cats fur, ever see it on dogs, makes good kitten britches" I will miss you always.
Love, Patti

“ No words can express how much you meant to me poppy. You were the best man in my life until my husband and son. They say you always marry a man like your daddy, well I married one like my poppy instead. I am so glad I was able to share my children with you even if it was for a short time. What an honor to have great-grandchildren and be well enough to enjoy them. I will always tell my children about you and express how special you were to me. They will not be able to remember being they are so young. They both spent their first few months in the cradle you made and ride the rocking horse you made often. I sit at night on the porch in my big chair that you also made and in vision you walking tall and straight and in no pain. In heaven you are so handsom and so tall, with mama, happy and young. Please watch over us and stay close to our hearts. We love you!

“ Poppy will be sorely missed by us all. He had such a blend of strength and tenderness. Who could ever forget the way he would smile and chuckle under his breath at an off color joke? My kids both spent the first few months of their lives in a cradle that Pop built for us. Later in life when they ask us about where it came from I will be able to tell them with pride that it was made by a man who was caring, strong, wise, gifted, funny and honest and who in his own quiet way touched the hearts of every one who knew him.

“ I've had a lot of good times, but the best I've ever had, Were the many happy hours I spent with Mom & Dad!! How do we thank our parents for all their sacrifice's?? Dad they say you are in a better place, walking tall & in no pain. After all the years you suffered, I hope so. You were so liked here on earth & loved by many. I pray we all meet again. I know you were lonely without mommy even though you had us all the time, so I hope you are with her now. Please, both of you watch over all of us. Love Wendy
