“ To Mrs. Herman, John, Aida, Nicole and all of Russell's family,

Russ was one of the first friends I made when I moved to Vernon in 1974. I didn't really have much of a choice, Russ and Tommy O'Connor came up to me near the fire house and said "Hey new kid, your are hanging with us." They both crushed me in a couple games of basketball and afterwards Russ said to me "You're alright kid." and we remained friends throughout life. We did not get to see each other much during the past 20 years (which of course I regret) but we communicated regularly via social media and on the phone. We planned to go fishing together this summer.

Nicole, whenever your Dad and I talked he raved about how proud he was that you were his daughter. He would say, "I don't know where she got so smart, because she is smarter than me." Without saying it directly, I could tell that you were his world. Your Dad loved you very much and still does. And you and I both know he really was a smart and kind guy.

Russ was a great friend and I will never forget him. I have so many fun and special memories of Russ, as do so many of us who went to high school with him (and Allen), played football, wrestled, hung out, and/or grew up in Sussex Hills with them.

My condolences to all of you in Russell's family. I'm so sorry for your loss. Russ will always be my friend.

*Sincerely,
Scott Angus (and family)*
