

Scott Allen Bartlett

November 11, 1974 - December 29, 2023

Honolulu, Hawaii- Scott Bartlett, age 49, passed away on Friday, December 29, 2023. Born in Ridgewood, New Jersey, Scott grew up in Vernon, where he lived most of his life before moving to Hau'ula, Hawaii. Scott served in the United States Navy from 1993-1997 as a Disaster Recovery Specialist. While living in New Jersey, he was a member of the Pochuck Volunteer Fire Department, an EMS Tech at the Glenwood Pochuck Volunteer Ambulance Corps, and a Dispatcher for the Pequannock Police Department. Scott had many interests and hobbies including: photography, fishing, scuba diving, boogie boarding, writing poetry, astronomy, and the history of the medieval times. He found peace living near the ocean. Scott is survived by his parents, Richard and Kathleen Bartlett, his siblings, William, Michael, Stacey, and Daniel Bartlett, and their respective spouses, Natalee, Michelle, and David. Scott is also survived by his nieces and nephews: Alexandria, Christopher, Dominick, Thomas, William, Elias, Evabella, and Eden.

“ Good afternoon,
Sorry for your loss, my name is MR1 (SW) Fajardo and we were stationed on the USS Copeland (FFG-25). He was a hard charger, working down in the engine room, and great shipmate. reybill@yho
o.com Peace be w/you. I'll pass the word.
