“ This poem is dedicated to the Pollison Family
"Don't Grieve For Me, For Now She is Free"
Today God, you've taken away a person
That many of us loved dearly.
Now our lives will be changed forever
And that is a burden we will all have to bear.
All we ask is that you take good care of her.
Because now she's in your hands.
To help her family & friends
That are still here to understand.
We know that she is going to be with us every step of the way
And at times things may get tough
We may not know what to say.
That's when we will think of you and what you might say
We know that you would want us to continue on & be strong.
Trust me, we'll try our best even though
It all seems completely wrong.
As we prepare to say our final good-bye the tears begin to flow,
We now know that the healing process will be slow.
By the grace of God we know that we work
Through this if we stick together.
For we all know that the pain we feel is not forever.
Yes, we have our good days and bad days,
When the people ask how we are doing
We don't know what to say
Yes the tears are still there,
Only because we lost someone who really cared.
As we look for you in all the places you normally are,
We begin to realize that you aren't very far.
Your where you've always been, in our heart.
Which lets us know that our lives will never be dark.
God we ask you to help us through these tough times,
And to let us know that we will be just fine.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
I'll see all of you again someday,
When God gives us a call,

*Until then . . . God Bless You All!
Don't Grieve For Me, For Now I'm Free!

“ *I knew you my whole life. You treated me like one of your own. I moved away and when you came to visit you still remembered me. I went to visit and you made sure that I came to visit you. You are like a second mom to me and your children are like my brother and sisters. I remember the good times and the bad times. You will be forever in my heart and prayers and will be missed dearly. All my love and prayers. Now you are the angel that watches over all of us. While you are up there give my mom and daughter a big hug for me i know that they are with you also.
