“ Dear Deb and family, Dan and I send all our sincere sympathy, strength, love, and light. I loved Stefanie the minute I met her. She and I chatted on line many times about rescuing animals and how it wasn't always easy being such an empath. Stefanie worked very hard trying to find homes for the cats that kept traveling to the Thompson Inn. I remember how she apologized for not being able to find a home for Blue Eyes. But in the next sentence she said she was actually happy because she could tell Blue Eyes and I fell in love from the first time I met him. She had / has such a magical and beautiful soul and an enchanting way with words. Stefanie got that from you Deb, along with her love for animals. I know for a fact she is surrounding all of you with her fierce angel wings. A Spirit like hers lights up not only the Heavens but the whole universe. My heart is right there with your heart Deb. I am here to help or just “be” with. I promise that the veil between heaven and earth is very thin. Love you, and love to the family. ❤️🙏🌟 Love, Mary and Dan Thompson
