“ Stephanie was an amazing person!! I have 21 years of amazing memory of her and i. Let's start with day one when I was born, now I can't remember this because I was to little but just knowing that I loved you and I was going to call you mom!! I was the first born so of course I was her favorite lol ❤️ I have so many wonderful memories like all the times a gave her hell and made her stressed out because I would always Escape the house but I wouldn't go far just to the neighbor's house lol I did that a lot with my brother Philip but just know I loved you mom. Then came school and I was into boys and you knew there was about to be so much crying and heart breaks but you were there for it all and loved me always... Mom did I tell you how much I loved you?! Then came high school I was in love with a boy and he hurt me four three to be exact but he would be the boy that hurt me the most. Until you said why not date Louie now to tell you about Louie. Louie was my best friend since I was 10 and whenever I had a problem my mom would call him but I'm not here to talk about him I'm here to talk about how my mom got me to realize that this man means the world to me and I end up marrying this man because of her and now I'm pregnant with his child because of her this is the one gift that I will forever have because of my wonderful mother. She made jokes to us to just kiss and we'll fall in love, we laughed not knowing it was good to be true. Finally we got together and she was so happy and wouldn't stop saying I told you guys so I always told you Louie I will be your future mother in-law will it happened she walked me down to my future husband knowing she was giving me away. Mom have I told you that you were my world?! I seen you one holidays and other times to see you. I know we've had are ups and downs but isn't that what happens to mothers and daughters? Well I'm not going to go on to the last few memories I have left because they weren't the best memories and I know you would want me not to remember you like that. Well I loved you so much I hope you knew that!! You were my everything and now you're in heaven with the other two most important women in my life my grandmother your mother Diane and my mother-in-law Marguerite!! I know you are so happy that I was pregnant but I knew you also sad as I am too that you won't be here to guide me when I need your help.... But I know you'll be watching over me, Louie and this baby! I love you so much mom you were my whole world and now heaven has gained a beautiful angel. I will never forget everything we've been through. Mom have I told you lately that iloveyou so much?! I hope you know! ❤️🙏😭

You are now and always was the Best Friend my daughter ever had. She would run if she knew you needed her. Her heart has been shattered knowing you are not in her reach. I'm so glad my daughter had a best friend like you. The years were not easy for you, but you stood up to all the down falls that came your way. I was like a proud parent saying "she'll be alright, she has her kids best interest at heart". Then you found George. How great a father he is to all the children. He now has the job of both father and mother to all five children. No doubt he will do a wonderful job. Stephanie you had become a part of our family from day one. We didn't understand how deep your fears were in letting the professionals help you when you really needed them. We will miss that beautiful smile and the warm heart you had. Keep watching over us all and remember Mom and Dad Jordan.
