“ So many things to remember as she was a big part of my childhood being her daughters best friend. Always included me. A silly thing is my favorite sandwich till this day she made me for the first time. White bread, roast beef, cheese and mayo. Not sure she realized it but always thought of her when I have one. She loved all her family and loyal to them all. I am great full to her for bringing Kristyn into my life. I can hear her accent in my ears now. Heven just got a gift. Our loss but hevens gain. Too soon but, it's the only question we can't answer is WHY? Xoxo Sue, thanks again for moving to Vernon. Your pack will keep you alive on Earth.

“ Susie was one of the wisest people I have ever been blessed to know. She was incredibly perceptive, sensitive and empathetic. She always, always knew exactly the right words to say or what to do. She had a magical rapport with all children, including my own whom she treated like gold. My heart goes out to Sweet Kaylei, as I know they were best friends from the moment she was born. Susan was gifted in many ways, including being an excellent cook, creative artist, avid reader and flower gardener. She knew hundreds of obscure trivia facts about animals and wildlife, and regaled us many times with stories of her beloved pet duck, Sunbeam. In fact, our 17 year friendship began when she gave me a stray kitten Kristyn came home with in 1996. Otto was her soul mate and true partner, my sympathies are with him. Steven and Kristyn--it is always too soon to lose a mother and I will be thinking of you all in the dark days to come. Finally, Mrs. Brady, no mother should have to bury their child, I hope it brings you comfort to see how much your daughter was loved. Thank you for sharing Susie with us all. I will forever miss her love, support and friendship.
