

Theodore "Ted" A. Cosh

October 15, 1958 - June 12, 2022

Wantage - Theodore "Ted" A. Cosh, age 63, peacefully passed away on Sunday, June 12, 2022, at his residence while surrounded by his loving family. Born in Sussex, Ted has lived in the Sussex-Wantage area all his life. He was born into a farming family and farming was in his blood and all he wanted to do for his entire life. He owned and operated Old Beemer Farm in Wantage with his family. After retiring from dairy farming, he then started Beemer Butcher, which he operated until recently. Ted enjoyed hunting and won a few awards and ribbons for participating in the MudBog of the Fair. Ted was predeceased by his father, Ernest T. Cosh. He is survived by his devoted wife of 42 years, Amy Simpson; his two sons, Ernest T. Cosh and his significant other Julie Stormes of Branchville and Edward S. Cosh and his wife Randi of Wantage; his daughter, Elizabeth R. Murphy and her husband Scott of Shohola, Pennsylvania; his mother, Marilyn (Hills) Cosh of Wantage; his brothers, Benjamin Cosh and his wife Caroline of Branchville and Chester Cosh and his wife Robin of Wantage; his sister, Jean Ann Eckert of Wantage.; and his six grandchildren, Aiden Cosh-Donahue, Adeline Murphy, Zoey Cosh, Liam Cosh, Sadie Cosh, and Izzy Cosh. Private cremation services have been entrusted to the Pinkel Funeral Home, 31 Bank Street (Route 23), Sussex. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Karen Ann Quinlan Hospice or The Sussex County 4-H foundation. A Celebration of Life will be held at 11 a.m. at the Old Beemer Farmstead on Sunday, July 24th, 2022. “ There are soo many wonderful memories with Ted, for the last 40 years... Grateful to be able to cherish them and remember such a great guy. He was such a huge part of all the milestones I had in life. My heart is with not only Amy and the kids, but also the entire Cosh family. Sending much love to you all.
