

Thomas Quinty

December 20, 1934 - February 4, 2021

Rockaway - Thomas Quinty, age 86, passed away on Thursday, February 4, 2021 at St. Clare's Hospital in Dover. Born in The Bronx, New York to the late Henry and Emily Mary (Lachetta) Quinty, Mr. Quinty built a house in Lake Hopatcong, where he lived until he retired and then moved to Rockaway. He had served in the United States Army during the Vietnam Era. Mr. Quinty was a self-employed electrician and he was an inspector for larger companies throughout the country. He enjoyed traveling, working on jigsaw puzzles, reading about current events, playing bocce, woodworking, and spending time at his cabin in the Adirondacks. He was predeceased by a grandson, Robert Ranieri. Mr. Quinty is survived by his wife of 67 years, Mary Jane (Linzalone); his sons, Timothy Quinty of Keene, New York and Christopher Quinty of Hackettstown; his daughters, Kelly Quinty of Augusta, Joan Cutchis of Hopatcong and Debi Ranieri of North Carolina; and seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Private cremation services have been entrusted to the Pinkel Funeral Home, 31 Bank Street (Route 23), Sussex. “ A great guy. A great spirit. A tireless promoter of family gatherings and family togetherness. My Mom had great affection for him from school days through the present. Lynn and I will never forget his lively dancing at our wedding. A jokester in the best sense. Many great days listening to him and Uncle Sonny. Always willing to help. Our heartfelt condolences, Lynn & Frank
