“ My Unc was the simplest dude with such a big heart. He will be missed beyond measure. It pains me that he won't physically be there to watch me get married next year, but I know I will feel his presence on that day. I'll forever hold memories of him driving his mustang and jamming out to creed. In the words of creed, I know when I see my unc again he'll greet me "with arms wide open".

“ Sisters and brothers just happen. We don't get to choose them, but they become one of our most cherished relationships, a bond of love and care. The day you left me was the saddest day in my life. The hardest thing in life is having to say goodbye to someone you love so much. Ever since you went away, life has never been the same, yet it comforts me to know that one day we'll meet again. I'll hold you in my heart until I hold you again in heaven. I'll end this tribute to the greatest guy I've ever known. My big brother Tom was an amazing guy.
