Even in the darkest times, his personality and sense of humor never changed. His passions were history, baseball, fishing and spending time with his family. He was a hero, leader and never a follower; which he instilled in all his family members.

“ The first time I met Tom I sat down in the living room as he watched me from his spot on the couch. As we went back and forth about who I am and what I do, I quickly realized the most important thing to him was his family. It also may or may not have helped there was yet another Tom coming to the family, that we may never know. However, I always admired how he would stop at nothing to help and protect his family. That fact became more and more evident as I met the rest of the Slockbower family. I will always appreciate the time I had with him throughout the years. While times like this are never easy, we must hold these memories in our hearts and know he may be gone but will never be forgotten.

“ Uncle Tommy, I have spent the last few days talking about and reflecting on your life. When I think about it you were one of my 1st uncles and I have known you all my life. Since I was little I can remember looking up to you as this tall gentle giant. You were always a family man, you worked hard , came home, and spent all your time with your family. Whenever someone was sick you came to see them, whenever there was a gathering you were there, whenever we needed help you gave it without question. You were always quiet but your love for your family and my aunt was loud and strong. You made a wonderful life and raised a beautiful family. We will miss you Uncle Tommy. Sleep peacefully

“ Dear Uncle Tom, I don't even know where to start..All the good times, all the bad times and everything in between but no matter what we always had a great time and this family has stuck together through everything. I never seen a man love a women like he loved my Aunt, they were inseparable. The kind of love you don't see anymore, the unconditional love. He cared and provided for his children and children that weren't his own including me and my siblings. Uncle Tom took us in many times and opened up his home to us and I'll be forever grateful. I have such good memories of all of us growing up and you'll never be forgotten. Uncle Tom, I love you and you will be missed dearly!!

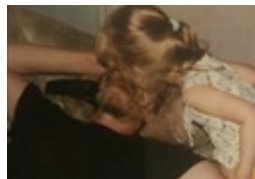

When someone you love is lost, that love for them becomes a memory and those memories live inside you forever....

“Where do I even begin? I would like to thank you for being the best Pop Pop to all of my babies. I was always so grateful they had you. I always said my kids only have 1 and they have the best. Thank you for the strength and kindness you always showed to me especially in the darkest time of my life. I'll never forget how you made me feel when Tommy first got sick. The simple sentence you said to me "Dont be sad TomTom is a Slockbower, he's strong" that gave me so much hope and I held on to that. You were so right. Ill always remember the fun times we all had sitting around the house laughing at everything and everyone, I feel you were happiest when everyone was just simply together. I always envied the love you and mom have and will always have. Thank you for always supporting us no matter what. I'm so sorry for time lost I wish I could have changed that. You will be so missed Pop Pop I hope you know how much you mean to so many. Hold on tight to my boy until we get there. I know he is safe with you. Watch over everyone and Rest in Peace.

“ Pop Pop- there are no words I can use to describe how thankful I am to have had you as a grandfather. I will cherish the times we spent together whether it be sitting on the steps, fixing the hoopty, talking about history, or just sitting in the parlor. You're the funniest guy I ever met and always managed to put a smile on my face. I know you'll always be with us. -Nickitybop

“ Today we loss Uncle Tom who taught me as many important lessons just like my parents. He taught me that work doesn't have to boring and based on books by letting a teenage me drive a job deer around his front (didn't get mad when I hit the trees) he taught me that lighting up is the way to get through life (always had a ball busting comment or two) and taught me that you should always do as much for your family as you could even if isn't convenient (took my sisters in as his own helped my aunt with my biological parents even if he wasn't thanked) thank you always Uncle Tom I love you and I will truly miss you ❤️ even when we last spoke on FaceTime you were yourself till the end

“ Dad,
You are my hero the one man that I could always look up too. You raised me like one of your own and never made me feel any different then the other kids. You had a great sense of humor and wouldn't expect anything less then a sarcastic comment to come out of your mouth in any situation. You always made me laugh you were goofy and I will never forget you being that way. You taught me responsibility and to work hard for things I wanted but to stay loyal and no matter what family is always first. You would literally give the shirt off your back to help someone else that's the kind of man you were. You also weren't a man of many words but the words you did say had great meaning and impact on us all. Mackenzie adored you and it really saddens me that you couldn't be with us just a little longer so you could see her get a little older. You were here long enough to leave a lasting impact on her and she loves you so very much and will miss you and understands that pop-pop is an angel now watching over her. I'm going to miss the conversations we shared. Every-time I had an issue with my car I'd call mommy and say hey ma my car is doing this and she would say hey stup April's car is doing this what do u think it is, and you'd always be right then tell me how the mechanic ripped me off Hahahaha I don't know what I'm going to do without you dad. You were always a voice of reason, I love you soooooo much! This isn't goodbye we never say goodbye it's see you later ❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ You were without a doubt my 2nd father; my baseball coach; and my die-hard (and at times too combative) sports fanatic - despite being a Yankees fan! Too many memories of us on 9th Street and with camping to post, but just remember I've always appreciated your side of situations and showing me how “street smarts” can apply to any living situation. You taught me how to repair cars (especially faulty exhaust pipes with a coffee can) and to appreciate Civil War battles that my own relative was involved with. May God bless you, my beloved friend, and give you eternal rest. Now stop yelling at me for rooting for the Mets!

“ Dad, From you I learned about life . You taught me that family is worth more than money. I became a great father because I had a great father. I learned a lot from you dad. You had a huge heart that saw people for who they were and you never cared what others thought about you. You showed me how to live my life by the way you carried yourself. You always told me I can achieve anything I put my mind to. We love you dad and we're gonna miss you forever.
