“ *To Ginny's family,
I'm sorry for your loss. My prayers are with you all. I ran into Ginny occasionally over the years since High School Graduation. We had so many great times in school and off school hours. 2 great memories come to mind of Ginny. Ginny and her VW Bug. She was always locking her keys in the car. I told her to have a spare made.
One day she again locked the keys in the car. I asked where is your spare key, she said I don't want to tell you and that was because she had kept it in the glove compartment.
The last HS memory was graduation day. Ginny was pregnant with Chrissy, due date was July 4th. Ginny showed up minutes before graduation ceremony was to start. We all thought because she hadn't arrived yet she had gone into labor, but noooo, she was just running late. We all wanted to shoot her for scaring us. We had lots of fun in school and out. I wish we hadn't lost touch over the years.
Rest in Peace my Friend.Until we meet again !!
GOD BLESS YOU AND GOD PLEASE BE WITH GINNY'S FAMILY AND FRIENDS AS THEY GRIEVE AND TRY TO UNDERSTAND
WHY SHE WAS CALLED HOME TOO SOON. AMEN*

“ They say "No News is Good News" well today my dear friend Paula G. informed me of Ginny's passing. So very sad to hear this. It has been many years since I saw Ginny. She had a great personality. We all grew up together in Lake Neepaulin, so there are many wonderful memories - I knew her Mom & Dad - really nice people. After her Mom passed-- I recall her dad always worrying about Ginny.... and loved his granddaughter so very much. It seems like only yesterday he was over my Mom or Godmother's house having coffee around the kitchen table - - chatting about Ginny and Kristen his then little granddaughter.
Rest In Peace Ginny. Say Hi to Al (Mr. Muller as I always called him) & Mary. XoX

“ So sorry, she was always sooo nice to me. I remember your Grandparents too, Mary and Al, also lovely people. I also remember when both you girls were born. I hope her love for you and your family gets you through. I'm very sad, I would run into her here and there, but no more. Rest easy Gin, say hello to your terrific parents.
