

Waltraud Maria Weyh "Ahrendt"

July 6, 1940 - June 21, 2024

Germany - Waltraud Maria Weyh "Ahrendt", aged 83, passed away on Friday, June 21, 2024 . She was born in Maehrisch Trubau, Sudetenland to the late Karl and Maria (Hantl) Langer. During World War II she was displaced at the age of four, and as a refugee, moved to Germany. Mrs. Weyh went to school, where she was educated in economics. After her schooling, she went to work for a large manufacturing company that made pumps and valves; known as KSB, in Pegnitz, Germany. Mrs. Weyh adored her family and took pride in raising her children. She continued to enjoy spending time with family and had a close relationship with her grandchildren, whom she visited often in the United States.

Besides her parents, she was predeceased by her husband, Hermann Weyh in 1986. Mrs. Weyh is survived by her son, Martin Weyh and his wife Margit of Germany; her daughter, Christine Ahrendt and her husband Steven of Wantage; her brother, Heribert Langer and his late wife Elisabeth of Germany; her sister, Ilse Roith and her husband Oswald of Germany; and her two grandchildren, Maximilan and Lilly Ahrendt of Wantage.
