“ I am so sorry to have missed the service. I wanted to write a few words for Weislawa as a fellow High Point mom. Despite the language barrier, I will always remember Weislawa for her devotion to her children. It was so easy to see her big heart and love for Patryk when she attended any school sport or event. Being able to watch his success and enthusiasm brings joy to all, but as his mom, I am sure it filled and warmed her heart beyond capacity. Speaking to Alicja only briefly, it is apparent to see what an amazing woman she is – her strength, maturity and resilience; her ability to overcome difficult challenges. I am sure she is a reflection of her mother. Weislawa, you will be greatly missed.
