“ A couple of fond memories: I will always remember the good times at Hemlock Farms, as a kid, sleeping over and singing to Camelot, and decorating their Christmas Tree. Uncle bill liked the song: Eating Chicken Soup with Rice from my school play in 5th grade, and when my shoe was kicked off when I was doing the can can. This last memory was something that I said and we always joked about "Uncle Bill, you talk and no one listens." I love and miss you very much. But am happy that you are with your Pooky (Aunt De) again.
