

William B. Lewis Jr.

October 1, 1960 - January 2, 2024

Montague - William B. Lewis, Jr., age 63, passed away on Tuesday, January 2, 2024 at Hackettstown Medical Center. Born in Washington, D.C. to the late William B. Lewis, Sr. and Mary Alice (DiGiulian) Lewis, Bill grew up in Clinton, Maryland and has lived in Sussex County for the past 20 years. He was a Washington Redskins fan and enjoyed listening to the music of the Beatles. Bill also had a love for cartoons and his demeanor attracted kids by the way he would make them smile constantly. Besides his parents, Bill was predeceased by his son, Craig W. Greene on August 3, 1986 and his brother, Mark B. Lewis. He is survived by his brother, Steven B. Lewis of Maryland; his close friend, Candy Leonard and her husband Ryan; his "best bud," Octavia; as well as his Goddaughter, Chelsea Padgett, her boyfriend Ryan Westpy, and her brother Jeffrey Berger. Memorial services will be held at 4 p.m. on Saturday, January 13, 2024. Friends may pay their respects to the family on Saturday prior to the service from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the funeral home. Private cremation services will be held at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in William's memory and his son, Craig's memory to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105. Online condolences may be offered to the family on www.pinkelfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ So sorry for your loss. Just found out about his passing. Bill and I are first cousins and lost touch many years ago due to family issues. Looks like he turned out to be a wonderful person.
