

William H. Schetting

June 11, 1928 - September 17, 2021

Hamburg - William H. Schetting, age 93, passed away on Friday, September 17, 2021 at his home. Born in East Orange to the late Henry and Agnes (Early) Schetting, he graduated from Hamburg High School and has lived in Hamburg for most of his life. Mr. Schetting had been a truck driver, an auto mechanic and retired as Supervisor of Buildings and Grounds from Sussex County Technical School. He spent ten years at High Point State Park in maintenance. Mr. Schetting was a member of the NRA and enjoyed hunting and fishing. He and his wife, Doris traveled across the country visiting family and many of our nation's treasurers. Mr. Schetting was a great storyteller. He had a vast amount of knowledge of just about everything you could imagine and was extremely intelligent on many subjects. Besides his parents, Mr. Schetting was predeceased by his loving wife of over 50 years, Doris in 2008. He was also predeceased by his sons, Jeffrey in 1996 and Stephen in 2019. He is survived by his sons, Gus and his wife Mari of Wantage, Michael and his wife Christine of Hampton, Virginia, and Christopher of Arizona; his grandchildren, Joseph, Lisa, Jamie and Amy; and his great grandchildren. His last years were under the loving care of his daughter-in-law, Mari in addition to Angela McDuffus and Freddy Hosking, Jr.. The family is eternally grateful for the care, hard work and dedication shown by them both to all of them. The family cannot thank them enough and they will remain special members of their extended family. Private funeral services were held at the convenience of the family. The family requests that memorial donations be made in William H. Schetting's memory to Karen Ann Quinlan Center of Hope Hospice, 99 Sparta Avenue, Newton, NJ 07860. Arrangements were entrusted to the Pinkel Funeral Home, 31 Bank Street (Route 23), Sussex.
